What is this product?

Type : Flexible fund, Income Accumulation

Objectives : The Fund is actively managed and aims to achieve gradual capital appreciation commensurate with reasonable risk. In pursuing this objective, the Fund's Manager uses fundamental analysis to select long and short investments mainly in equity exposure both equity securities and OTC derivatives. The Fund has no reference Benchmark. In order to realize its investment strategy, the Fund will invest mainly in different classes of international transferable securities, mainly equities and derivatives on equities, and, on a residual basis, in bonds, money market instruments and other derivatives.

Investment Policy: The Fund may:

- use OTC derivatives (such as, for example, contracts for difference or equity swap) in order to create long and short exposure.
- invest in ADR (American Depositary Receipts) or GDR (Global Depositary Receipt) on a tactical basis. All bonds will be investment grade.
- invest in instruments denominated in currencies other than the euro. The transferable securities in which the Fund will invest will be primarily issued by US, European and emerging markets issuers, with a limit of thirty per cent (30%) in securities issued by emerging markets issuers.
- invest, on a residual basis, in money market instruments with duration of less than twelve (12) months.
- hold cash, up to a maximum of 30% of its net assets.
- invest up to ten per cent (10%) of its net assets in UCITS, including ETF UCITS, or other UCI as referred to in art. 41, section 1, of the Law of 2010.
- use financial techniques and instruments in order to promote an efficient portfolio management, in accordance with the restrictions set forth in the "Financial techniques and instruments" chapter of the prospectus. The Fund may not invest in securities traded on the Russian Micex RTS market. The Fund takes into account the sustainability risks in its investment decisions and ESG criteria in the "ESG criteria and sustainability risks" chapter of the prospectus. The Fund's value is calculated and expressed in Euros.

Redemption: Unit holders may request redemption of the units at any time by sending an irrevocable redemption instruction to the Depositary Bank, to the Management Company, to the other banks or other institutions authorised for this purpose by the Management Company accompanied by subscription confirmations or certificates representative of units, as the case may be. Redemption lists are closed at the registered office of the Management Company by 4 p. m. of the banking day prior to the Calculation Date.

Maturity : The Fund is established without limits of duration

Intended retail investor : This Sub-Fund addresses to retail investors with a long-term (5 to 10 years) investment horizon willing to accept a high level of risk. The investor is warned that all investments involve a percentage of risk and that it cannot be guaranteed that investment policy objectives will be achieved. The minimum amount of the first subscription is 2,500 euro. No minimum amount for subsequent subscriptions.

What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

 LOWER RISK HIGHER RISK

The synthetic risk indicator assumes that the product is held for 10 years and is an indicative indication of the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It expresses the probability that the product will suffer monetary losses due to movements in the market or due to our inability to pay you what is due. We ranked this product at level 3 out of 7, which corresponds to a medium-low risk class. This means that potential losses due to the future performance of the product are ranked in the medium-low level and that poor market conditions are unlikely to affect the ability to pay you what is due. This product does not include any protection from future market performance, so you may lose all or part of your investment. If we are unable to pay you what is due, you may lose your entire investment.

What you will get from this product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted. The unfavourable, moderate, and favourable scenarios shown are illustrations using the worst, average, and best performance of the product, which may include reference/proxy index variables, over the last 15 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances. The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

What happens if Ersel Gestion Internationale S.A. is unable to pay out?

The assets of the Fund are held in safekeeping by its Depositary, CACEIS Bank Luxembourg Branch. In the event of the insolvency of the Manager, the Fund's assets in the safekeeping of the Depositary will not be affected. However, in the event of the insolvency of the Depositary or a delegate thereof, the Fund may suffer a financial loss. However, this risk is mitigated to a certain extent by the fact the Depositary is required by law and regulation to segregate its own assets from the assets of the Fund. The Depositary will also be liable to the Fund and the investors for any loss arising from, among other things, its negligence, fraud or intentional failure properly to fulfill its obligations.

What are the costs?

The expenses incurred are used to cover the management costs of the Fund including the costs of marketing and distribution of the Fund. These expenses reduce the potential return on the investment. The tables show the amounts that are taken from your investment to cover different types of costs. These amounts depend on how much you invest, how long you hold the product and how well the product does. The amounts shown here are illustrations based on an example investment amount and different possible investment periods.
